THE MARKET REPORT

National Stock Yards Market Report
Colorado lamb shipments are over for the season thus native and western totaled 3000 head but included 600 Texas sheep direct to a local packer. Trade was active and strong in every respect though it was clipped lambs that came in for the keen demand and they advanced from 19 to 25 cents over yesterday. The top was $7.90 with bulk of the good at $7.75 to $7.75. Fat ewes brought $5.50 and bucks $4.75. Good choice spring lambs sold at $9.40 to $9.75.

We look for a moderate supply and a good market for all fat stuff the next few weeks.

Hog receipts 11,000. Trade steady; top $8.50. It is costing more to ship hogs than a short while back owing to their shrinky quality coming off of grass. From all indications we believe present values will be hard to maintain.

Cattle receipts 400. Butcher cattle 25 cts. lower than last Friday. Fat steers barely steady; cows unchanged. Grass Texas cattle have started to come and in a few weeks their influence upon medium fleshed native cattle will be told with more or less decline and we advise marketing that grade.

Booster Club

A committee of business men representing the Booster Club of St. Louis were Lead Belt visitors Monday. They came in a special train. The object of the trip was to get better acquainted with their patrons in the Lead Belt. They reached Flat River about 12:30, and owing to having such a short stay were unable to do very much in the way of getting acquainted. They had their band and gave concerts in each town in which they visited. They were met by a committee of citizens and expressed themselves highly pleased with their reception. We trust their trip will prove of mutual advantage.

For State Senator

Hon. John T. Byrne's name appears in our column this week as a candidate for State Senator (Twenty-sixth district). Mr. Byrne has been one of our leading men in Democratic politics for many years. He made a strong race for State Senator four years ago, but was defeated by a small majority.

He is a gentleman of splendid attainments and is well fitted for the office he seeks, and we know that if elected he will serve the people faithfully and honestly. Mr. Byrne is a native of Jefferson county.

There are none more able than John T. Byrne and he will make a good Senator. He asks your vote and support at the primary election.—Des Soto Press.

Of the Green Eye

Once upon a time there was a fellow who got sore at his face and for spite cut off his nose. There are many men and women today who are doing worse things, more absurd things. Being jealous of a quality or a human is within hailing distance of the nose seaver. Jealousy is in two forms, of and for. If you are good on forms, figure it out. Jealousy was invented by the devil to keep husbands home at night. Its a queer mixture, this jealousy. It is composed of one-half selfishness, one-third foolishness and three sixteenths cussedness. The remaining portion is a secret concoction that is distilled from the weeds of envy and malice, which are liable to grow in every heart. Jealousy is a productive plant. It grows discontent and discord, sorrow and suffering, murder and war. It helps lawyers and undertakers and is said to have put the he in hell. It's a great deal like a faithful dog. It follows it's owner everywhere. No one ever met jealously without getting the worst of the meeting. It has pranced into every kingdom and mocked emperors and street-sweepers. Worlds have failed through jealousy and characters were juggernauted since Eden's serpent first twisted it's tail. Jealousy has one child by it's first marriage—Scandal. And it's very obedient child. The later children are weak and punny and can be chastised to the point of reformation, but Jealousy doesn't like for anyone to lay a hand on her offspring.—Ex.

Most Prompt and Effectual Cure for Bad Colds

When you have a bad cold you want a remedy that will not only give relief, but effect a prompt and permanent cure, a remedy that is pleasant to take, a remedy that contains nothing injurious. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy meets all these requirements. It acts on nature's plan, relieves the lungs, aids expectoration, opens the secretions and restores the system to a healthy condition. This remedy has a world wide sale and use, and can always be depended upon. For sale by all dealers.
